Total subscriptions up to last night amounted to $4,600—less than one-half of the amount which is needed. The campaign closes to-morrow night, and in the meantime the canvassers will put forth every effort to secure the amount needed to complete the fund.

That Richmond, by reason of its marvelous industrial development, has become a great employment centre to which thousands of young women and which thousands of young women and girls are drawn each year is a fact which has become generally known. The Mayor's Appeal.

Governor Mann and Mayor Richardson have written letters to the officials of the association commending the work they have undertaken. The Mayor's letter is herewith reproduced:

"I say without qualification that there is no institution in Richmond which offers greater opportunities for doing good, or which is more good, than the Young Women's Christian Association. ticular destination. Those who are in search of employment will be placed in suitable boarding houses and proper positions will be obtained for them. The workers will wear badges so that they may at once be recognized, and by proper publicity women all over the State will be informed of this department of Y. W. C. A. work, so that in case of their coming to Richmond they will know that upon their arrival they will be met at the station by some one sociation.

"In these days of progress it is a sad fact that many women are compelled to go out into the world and earn their own livelihood, and often to support others dependent on them. All honor to these brave women, but still it is to be deplored that so many who are fitted to be queens of the household are compelled to bear the rude shocks of competition in their struggle for bread.

Last year 1,700 young women, who left homes in small towns and in the country in search of employment in the larger cities, disappeared from railway stations at points between New York and Chicago. Had the earth opened and swallowed them their loss could have been no more complete. Until recent years Ric. mond has been free from the perils which beset young women in other large cities of the North and East. Now, however, with the great increase in the number of industries employing female help, together with the natural scarcity of such help here, the number of women coming in from other places has correspondingly increased, and it is in recognition of the needs of this great army of women workers that the association desires to be in position where it can offer adequate assistance.

Demands Are Pressing.

For the first time in its history the association finds itself unable to meet the demands made upon it, and never were demands so imperative. As the weeks pass young women and girls continue to pour into the city, while at the present time the association is taxed to the limits of the accommodations it has to offer. With its present limitations sconer or later the associations in that the accommodations it has to offer. With its present limitations sconer or later the associa-

With the proceeds from the present campaign the association hopes to be able to establish what is known as the travelers aid department of Y. W. C. A. work. This consists of a regular force of association workers, who make their headquarters in the railway stations and other places of public arrival and devote their whole time to meeting young women coming in and looking after their interests.

To Meet All Trains.

The association at the present time has cards placed in public places offering hospitality and protection to strangers. The results which have been manifold, and it is with the idea of supplementing the work in behalf of the strange young women in the city that the new department will be established.

Workers will meet all trains and will endeavor to come in contact with every young woman who arrives in the city unaccompanied, or without particular destination. Those who are in search of employment will be placed in suitable boarding houses and proper

Since John Quit Drinking

Pm the happiest little woman,
in all this little town:
And my merry laugh and singing.
Takes the place of sigh and frown.
For JOHN HAS QUIT HIS DRINKING
And is like himself once more;
And the world is just a paradise
With such happiness in store!
One day I read some versas.

One day I read some verses—
"Mary's Miracle," the name,
And I said, that's John exactly,
And I'll send and get the same,
Go I sent for GOLDEN REMEDY,
(As sly as sly could be)
And I put it in John's supper
And I put it in John's supper

And it didn't taste a little bit;
Had no odor, so, you see—
It was smoothest kind of sailing
For little Doctor Me.
And I watched and prayed and waited,
(And cried some, too, I guess),
And I didn't have the greatest faith,
I'm ashamed now to confess.

And John never thought a minute,
He was being cired of drink,
And soon he's as well as any one,
It makes me cry to think!
Just makes me cry for gladness,
I'm so proud to be his wife—
Since he is cured of drinking,
And leads a uice, new life, And resus an enter the "Since John he quit a drinking!"
I can't say it times enough!
And hates and loathes a liquor
As he would a polson stuff.
And when I say my prayers at night,
As thankful as can be—
I pray for John the most of all—
Then GOLDEN REMEDY.

In the case of Sergeant Berg, he admitted that he had given ammunition on the car to Private Campbell. He said he at first thought Captain Stone was on the car, and later, at the request of a woman passenger, he had gone down the footboard and told the men to cease firing.
